Margaret enlisted in the WAVES November 11, 1942, and was ordered to leave January 12, for Stillwater, Oklahoma, where she has since been studying and receiving basic training at the Oklahoma A. & M. college. She reported for active duty in Miami, April 26.

Miss Henrichson has been very interested in her studies and the various phases of the naval service, and is also greatly impressed with the city of Miami. She resigned her position with the local branch of the American Trust company to enlist in the WAVES.
